Miscellaneous

- Test Our Rule Writing and Easy-To-Read Rules

Ecology's Laws and Rules web site is offering two new features to solicit input from the people that use our rules. The Test Our Rule Writing site is where rule users can go to read a draft rule and then take a short test to see how well they can answer questions that pertain to the rule they just read. The results of the test show the agency where the rule language can be improved for clarity and usability. To test an Ecology rule visit http://www.ecy.wa.gov/laws-rules/rule\_test/index.htm.

The Easy-To-Read Rules site provides a list of Ecology rules that have been reformatted to make the rule easier to read and use. Additional information like an introduction to the rule, background information and where guidance documents for the rule can be found are also included to assist the users of the rule. Visit http://www.ecy.wa.gov/laws-rules/ecy\_format/index.htm to see the Ecology rule format. Don't forget to click on the Feedback link to tell us what you think.
